At the seventh Insies sliced into the rough while Hilton was straight down the course and reached the green 10 feet from the marker on his second, while Insies needed 3 for the same distance, and so lost the hole 5 to par 4. That was the first hole he had lost, having halvest forms to be seen to having halved four and won two.

The match was then squared on the eighth by his losing that hole 4 to par I. Hilton was just off the edge of the green with his mid iron from the tee, while Insiee was 15 feet below the hole. Hilton laid his approach dead while Insiee was 15 man and the hole. Insiee overran cup and so lost the hole. Insiee also lost the ninth. Hilton got the green in 2. Insiee overplayed the green into tall grass, pitching out over strong. Then he missed two putts which left him par 6, but Hilton was down in 5. Hilton 1 up at turn.

again took the first game of a doubleheader from Chicago before a crowd wrought to a pitch by sensational fielding and sharp playing by both sides. Pittsburgh scored three runs in the third and Reulbach was relieved by Richie. Hendrix, for Pittsburgh, held the Chicago men down to one hit until the ninth, which, for a youngster, was pleasing work to the fans. The ninth was a climax, when, with two men on bases and none out, snappy fielding kept Chicago from scoring.

Moe Levy Announces His New Fall Suits & Overcoats

Always room at the top is an old saying, and I've proved it in my clothing values for this Fall. I thought I had reached the top rung of the ladder of my clothing ambitions last season, but I've got a little higher this Fall, found "more room" to improve and brought out the finest clothing New York can show at prices no other clothier can touch.

This may sound boastful to strangers, but patrons who know my values will understand. Those who don't know should inspect my offerings this Fall. It will be an education to them even if they don't buy.

Doing things in a big way, buying direct from the mills, saving middlemen's and contractors' profits, makes it possible for me to sell a

$25 Service Suit or Overcoat for

This $15.00 line has always been my pride, and I am prouder than ever of the values I have been able to put into it this Fall. Cloth and trimmings are better than ever and can be found about town only in $25.00 clothes. The tailoring, too-the most important feature in men's clothing—is all done in my own workrooms under my own supervision. English models-"Well I should say so"-come in and see them.

My Other Suits and Overcoats

Below the $15.00 line are my great $10.00 and $12.50 values that I defy any clothier to touch this side of $15.00 to $20.00. Sixty styles to choose from and every one a hummer.

At $17.50, $20.00, $22.50, $25.00 and $35.00 I introduce you to values that Broadway marks all the way from $30.00 to $50.00.

Boys Come in for Good Things, Too

My Boys' Department this season will make the mothers' eyes open wide. Among some fabrics I bought from a foreign mill and put into $25 men's suits were some ends too small for men's suits. so I made them up for the boys, trimming and tailoring them just like $25 men's clothes. No such boys' suits have ever $0.95 been seen before (sizes 8 to 18). $15 would ordinarily be a low price for them but they're yours for.....
